

Aristotle's Plot

Producer: Joel Phiri, Jacque Bidou, Colin Maccabe
Director: Jean Pierre Bekolo
Genre: Arthouse
Duration: 72 minutes

Synopsis: In a southern African town, a group of wannabe gangsters hang out at the Cinema Africa, subjecting themselves to mega-doses of the latest action-fest. They've even taken the names of their screen gods; Van Damme, Bruce Lee, and Nikita. Into this walks an earnest cineaste who wants to enlist the government's help in cleansing Cinema Africa of Hollywood imports, replacing Schwarzenegger with Sembène.

Festivals:

International Film Festival Rotterdam (1997).