

Kini & Adams

Producer: Joel Phiri, Cedomir Kolar, Sophie Salbot, Frédérique Dumas, Jeremy Brickhill
Director: Idrissa Ouedraogo
Genre: Drama
Duration: 72 minutes

Synopsis:

Kini and Adams are good friends who live in a village and just manage to survive. They dream of making it big in the city one day. In the meantime they invest all their money and time in building up an old car whilst the other villagers criticise and Kini's wife ridicules them. One day a building project is started in the village which provides work for the villagers. However, when Kini saves the site manager from an explosion and is rewarded with a promotion, Adams feels hurt and a chasm grows between the two friends.

Festivals:

Official Competition, Cannes Film Festival (1997), New York African Film Festival (1997).

Awards:

Nominated for the Palme d'Or, Cannes Film Festival (1997)